Bare Dinner Tables.

Up in cold, conventional, gilded Newport the nude in dining parlors being worshipped. Oak, mahogany and walnut are laid bare for lunch and dinner—fashionables usually eat breakfast in private—and not even so much as a center-stand is permitted to hide the beautiful wood. If the host carves, which he seldom does, a small capricious or large doyle goes under the platter. It is a part of the elegance of wealth not to mind the scratches. There are plenty of servants to erase them. There is, too, another point of view, viz: genteel people are never rough, and as the glass, china, plate and cutlery are exquisitely finished, there is no reason why the polished table should be marred.

GOOD PLAYING

Won Yesterday's Game From the Delphos Boys.

Lima won the second game from Delphos yesterday by superior support and excellent support of Furot, Delphos pounding him for eight hits and securing only three runs, while Lima only scored four hits off Herriman and got three runs. Herriman, who pitched for Delphos, was poorly supported by Wright, the reason being the latter's inability to catch him. Delphos got one run in the first inning and two in the ninth, while Lima's runs were distributed through the game. The Lima boys played an excellent game, and had it not been for their excellent support of Furot, the score might have been different. The All Professionals' club plays here this afternoon and to-morrow.

TICK-UPS.

Lima, with yesterday's victory has won nine straight games.

The Brooklyn League team will play here a week from to-morrow.

The All-Professional club, of Cincinnati, is one of the best clubs in the State.

The Delphos Club was in the city this morning enroute to Leipsic where they were to play today.

A Good Appetite

Always accompanies good health, and an absence of appetite is an indication of something wrong. The universal testimony given by those who have used Hood's Sarsaparilla, as to its merits in restoring the appetite, and as a purifier of the blood, constitutes the strongest recommendation that can be urged for any medicine.

Hood's Pills cure all liver ills, biliousness, jaundice, indigestion, sick headache.

Obituary.

She sleeps; but 'tis that long, long sleep that knows no waking. The lamp of Mrs. Henderson Dowman goes out forever. Lower and lower it burns for weeks and months, until it is extinguished by the hand of death.

The summons came Wednesday evening, Sept. 6, 1894.

She was born Nov. 9, 1844, in Mohand county, Ohio, and died Wednesday, Sept. 6, 1894, at her home in Perry township, aged 49 years, 9 months and 27 days. She leaves a husband and four grown children—two sons and two daughters. Funeral services were held at Perry chapel, conducted by Rev. Father A. Berry and Rev. Elges of Lima. Interment in Perry chapel cemetery.

The end came peacefully and with a smile. She was the pride of her family and friends, and her memory will long be cherished by all who knew her. She had been faithful to her God, and she went into the valley of the shadow of death laden with the honors of the world, but at the same time cheered with the smile and approbation of heaven. Her last days of suffering were cared for by friends and relatives, upon whom she will gaze no more. Against her all avenues of earthly hope and ambition are closed forever, but she went with the radiance of a great and good life lingering around her couch. An imperishable chapter was held above her circle of life for a while, her face when her spirit issued forth into the shadows. Her true life goes far in giving a goodly example. In the shadows of the last hours we have sincere grief for her going. Would that she might have lived longer. There are many, but her affection at the open door of her tomb.

Deserving Praise.

We desire to say to our citizens, that for many years we have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery, Pills, Bucklen's Arnica Salve and Electric Bitters; and have never handled remedies that sell as well, or that have given such universal satisfaction. We do not hesitate to guarantee them every time, and we stand ready to refund the purchase price, if satisfactory results do not follow their use. The remedies have won their great popularity purely on their merits. Melville Bros., Druggists.

IT IS OVER.

Arguments Made This Morning in the Hallwood Case.

One Deposition Remains to Be Taken Before Judge Mooney Gives His Decision.

In the Hallwood injunction case late yesterday afternoon F. H. Gervey was called. He is employed as a bookkeeper and for incidental traveling for Mr. Hallwood. Has been employed by Mr. Hallwood since last February. Was here last winter before spring election. Met Mr. Pillars, the city engineer, the city clerk and Mr. Hughes. Returned here after spring election and met Mr. Gamble. They talked of the Hallwood block. Gamble was interested and asked many questions. Gamble said he was after points in paying. Witness requested him, if he could do so conscientiously, to champion the Hallwood block. Witness explained to engineer how to make brick tests. He gave Mr. Gamble a personal invitation to go to Columbus at Horne & Hallwood's expense. That was after the specifications were received. He said he could not go because he had some private work on hands. Witness offered to advance money to him and pay an assistant to do the private work while Gamble would have been in Columbus. Did not offer any municipal officer any money or reward of any kind to either vote or act in his favor.

Cross-examination: He considered it right and prudent for councilmen to go to Columbus at the expense of Horne & Hallwood. He accompanied the council to Columbus. Assistant city engineer Holden, of Columbus, was also with the councilmen in Columbus. Henry S. Hallwood, is a member of the firm of Horne & Hallwood. Has been engaged in contracting brick paving for ten years. The Hallwood block are now manufactured at ten or twelve different places. He assisted in conducting the councilmen about the streets of Columbus. Witness said that the only real test for bricks is the wear and tear on streets.

Witness said he did not himself or did not authorize any one to offer any money or other reward to any of the municipal officers of this city in order to secure their support or advocacy for the Hallwood or any other material.

Councilman Foley was called and said he had served six years in the city council. Mr. Hughes at one time circulated a petition to determine the kind of material was wanted on the Square. Witness had several conversations with Harley about street paving. Introduced Harley to Mr. Kipy one afternoon. Witness told Mr. Horne that he and Harley might have a talk and that he would introduce him to Harley. Also told Horne that Harley wanted to meet him. Witness with councilmen investigating street paving there and at Dayton. Did not state to Merrigold that it was no use for him to bid on the paving, and did not say that Mr. Dick Ody was to be superintendent of the work. Did not receive any offer of reward from Horne & Hallwood or Gervey for his support of their material. Had investigated paving materials and formed an opinion of the different materials. Is of the opinion that the Hallwood block is the proper and best material with which to pave the Public Square. Observations proved to witness satisfaction that the Hallwood block stood wear better than any other.

Cross-examination: Met Mr. Gervey once or twice previous to the bidding. He came to witness' store. Didn't know much about brick before going to Columbus. After going to Columbus witness was convinced that Hallwood block was the best through his trip to Columbus. While at Dayton witness paid his own way to the races. He attended the meeting at Dietrich's. Komer told him to come to the meeting. He went down Pearl street to Dietrich's house and did not leave with the other councilmen.

Councilman Allen was next called and stated that he was a member of the city council. He introduced Mr. Horne to Mr. Harley. He had met Mr. Horne when he came up town that evening. He asked Horne to to see the Y. M. C. A. building. They then walked further out and looked at some of the properties. Horne asked witness to walk on up to Foley's with him. Foley asked him to introduce Horne to Harley. He went and after introducing the gentlemen, excused himself and left them alone. Did not remember what he said when he excused himself. Considered the Hallwood brick the best. Lost no time from duties to investigate brick except on trip to Columbus. Received no offer of reward for support of Hallwood block.

Cross-examination: Did not meet Mr. Horne in front of Lima House by appointment. Did not suppose Mr. Horne and Mr. Harley cared to have him standing around during their conversation. On the evening after examining the streets in Columbus, was one of the party who went to open house. Did not know what time they left the theatre. After returning to hotel the party got into carriages and took a drive. Did not remember of alighting from the carriage after leaving the hotel until they returned to it. None of the party alighted to his knowledge. While out examining streets in Columbus, the party stopped in a place he did not know whether or not it was a saloon. They got drinks there. Witness drank lemonade.

Councilman Greenland took the stand and testified that he was a member of the present council. He examined brick with Mr. Hughes in engineer's office. Was with the party in Columbus and from observation decided that Hallwood block was

THE BEST PAVING BLOCK, though he was always in favor of asphalt. No offer of reward was made him by any one for his support of Hallwood block. Witness attended meeting of the nine at Dietrich's. That was after rejection of Horne & Hallwood's first bid. Witness stated that attorney Halfhill drew resolution to award contract for paving to Hallwood and attorney Cable drew the resolution to employ Messrs. Cable & Parmenter and Ridmore & Halfhill as attorneys for the city.

Councilman Jackson was next called. Stated that he went to Columbus. Said that after returning from Columbus he told Mr. Price he had seen better looking paving material than the Hallwood, but that the Hallwood stood the wear better than any other, and that they would undoubtedly support the Hallwood block, and further that the Hallwood block was found superior to other paving materials and therefore the councilmen felt obliged to support it. Was well entertained in Columbus and enjoyed the trip.

Councilman Wise—Thought the Hallwood material the best with which the pave the square. He was not influenced by any offer of reward. Cross-examination: Did not know either Horne or Hallwood before going to Columbus.

Councilman Chaplin—Investigated brick pavements and concluded that the Hallwood material was the best. Court adjourned until this morning when the case was resumed at 8:30 o'clock. Mr. Dietrich was the first to take the stand. Said he had been a member of the council three years; knew Messrs. Hughes and Cunningham while members of council; had circulated petitions and concluded that the Hallwood block was the best material that had been in town for the past two years had called to see him. He visited Columbus with council; examined brick samples at engineer's office; thought there was nothing to equal the Hallwood. Witness was informed that the Middleport brick were inferior material. Was not influenced by any reward or promise of reward to support or advocate the Hallwood block; said a meeting was held at his house on Monday, August 13th, by several members of council for purpose of deciding what should be done for the interests of the city; at that meeting he was appointed to consult an attorney and draw the resolution to use Hallwood material, because the nine thought that the Solicitor was adverse to the Hallwood material, and the nine were protecting their rights; knew Halfhill was attorney for Horne & Hallwood at that time.

Dr. L. J. Steuber was called and said he had been subpoenaed as a witness by the plaintiff in the solicitation of Mr. Harley. In a conversation with witness Mr. Harley asked him if he would have any objection to testifying in the court what he knew of the paving matter; that Harley told him that he would not have taken the stand he had in the matter had treated him so mean, and he had a chance to hold them, and he was going to do it.

RUN DOWN.

Kingleader of a Gang of Sharpshooters Pinched.

Arrested at Wapakoneta and Taken to Delphos to Answer to a Crime Committed Two Years Ago.

Sheriff Fisher and Deputy Marshal Bergfeld, and officers Lindeman and O'Neill, of Delphos, made a clever capture at Wapakoneta this morning.

August 12th, 1892, a gang of circus followers, headed by a well known gambler known as "Col Boynton," visited Delphos and as the saying goes, ripped the town wide open, victimizing farmers and others out of various sums of money. An attempt was made to arrest Boynton and the gang and a bloody battle took place on the show grounds, the officers being repulsed. Boynton and his gang was chased to several places and into Pennsylvania, but got away.

The other day the Delphos authorities learned that Boynton and his gang would be at Wapakoneta to-day, a show being billed for that town, and last evening the papers for his arrest were gotten out in Delphos and the Delphos authorities drove over to Lima, arriving here about 4 o'clock. After being joined by Sheriff Fisher the party continued the trip toward Wapakoneta and arrived there about 6:30 o'clock. As luck would have it they ran across Boynton on the street and recognizing him followed him into a drug store arrested and handcuffed him. On the way out of town they were compelled to pass the show grounds and Boynton made an effort to get assistance from his gang, but the officers whipped up their horses and got around them all right.

The officers were well armed and there would have been serious trouble had there been an attempt to rescue Boynton, who was safely lodged in the Delphos jail about 1 o'clock this afternoon.

TO GET BACK AT THE MEN who had disappointed him. When witness Harley he shook hands with him and complimented him on the stand he had taken. Witness told Harley that he had heard that Allen was one of the first who went to Columbus, to enter an improper place. Mr. Merrigold was witness informant. Mr. Harley told witness that Mr. Allen had claimed that he was a Christian and would not vote for George Peck as a policeman because he was not the right kind of a man for him to support.

Councilman Greenland was recalled and stated that he did learn some points about absorption tests from Gervey. He met Steuber and shook hands with him. Steuber told him he had been reliably informed about Allen's capers in Columbus. Did not tell him he would not have taken the stand if it had not been for that. He saw Allen at solicitation of Mayor Smiley, also that Steuber told him he knew some of the councilmen had been bribed and that he would testify to it. He (Steuber) had it from a reliable source about the action at night of some of the councilmen who visited Columbus.

The evidence was concluded at about 10 o'clock when the speeches were begun, attorney Cable being first. He was followed by solicitor Adgate and attorney Price, attorney Halfhill concluding. The case was finished at noon.

The defense has the deposition of Henry Merrigold to present, and the case will not be decided until after that is obtained and presented to Judge Mooney.
